

cash in hand, says the north-eastern states are over and again using facilities are Manipur, and Nagaland. central bank offers three liquidity windows -- drawing facility (SDF; for 30 days), ways and advances (WMA, for 5 days) and overdraft (14 working days) facilities to tide over their liquidity needs. of the main reasons for the use of these windows is overpricing than market rates. Till August, the bank offered SDF facility at a rate of 3.2-4.2 per cent while state bonds are at 7.8 per cent or more. RBI study has identified "vulnerable states" in fiscal management -- Jharkhand, Bihar, Haryana, and, Kerala, Madhya Pradesh, Punjab, Rajasthan, Uttar Pradesh and Bengal. —PTI pay a bribe to the concerned authorities as they had been advised that it would make the registration process easier, faster and without query. According to the survey, 52% families who got assets of a demised family member transferred in the last 10 years had to pay bribes in many places. Only 23% families were able to easily get the assets of a deceased family member transferred while the majority struggled, while 86% of families who had to pay a bribe to get assets of a demised family member transferred had to pay bribes at property registration or land transfer offices.

These include situations where revenue records are not tallying, queries to prove ancestry, latest government rules or amendments, sharing data with the civic authorities, reducing stamp dues under ignorant mistakes, among others. In terms of categories of offices where most families paid a bribe to get assets transferred post demise, the highest were at the property registration or local land officials, where 86% of the people surveyed said they paid bribe, 65% paid it to other local and state government offices, and 26% paid officials in the magistrate office/courts.

The survey concluded that asset transfer to legal heirs is a herculean task in India. As indicated by the survey, only 23% of families were able to transfer offices have been found to be most guilty of this practice.

"The need of the hour is for the central government to take up the issue of difficulties faced by citizens in inheritance processing as an area of reform. Through the Department of Public Grievances or any other ministry or department, policies must be established which should then be rolled out to the state governments to enable a single window system in all major districts for processing of inheritance or succession issues," Local Circles said in a statement.
